

Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)

OVERVIEW

American InterContinental University™ offers an industry-relevant BBA program designed to provide the knowledge and skills to pursue opportunities in the business world. In this program, students are given the opportunity to focus on key areas essential to the business world.

CORE CURRICULUM

In this curriculum, students can study a wide range of business knowledge in subjects such as: accounting, finance, marketing, human resources, and project management. Courses are structured to assist students in the development of a general business-knowledge core that is designed to provide a foundation for pursuing career paths in business or management. The program culminates in a capstone experience. Some of the courses include:

Introduction to Business: students can study foundational business activities including basic concepts of management, differences between various kinds of organizations, and finance fundamentals.

Principles of Marketing: students can explore how to apply investigative and research skills, position products and services in the marketplace, and understand the importance of an organization's relationship to its customers.

Program Capstone: students can synthesize the concepts learned in previous courses, and work to develop their skills in areas such as negotiation, leadership, and performance management.
